THE DEESIDE INN BALLATER

Nr. Tomintoul

HENDERSON CHURCH PILGRIMAGE TO ROYAL DEESIDE AND CRATHIE CHURCH 5—6 May, 2012

The Deeside Inn Hotel in Ballater offers a warm and friendly atmosphere from the moment you enter. The cosy log fires help to give you that home away from home feeling.

The Deeside Inn has recently undergone many alterations, which include: the layout of the bedrooms to create additional space as well as fully refurbishing the public areas to a high quality traditional inn standard.

This Ballater hotel still features many of its period characteristics such as its wooden panelling, wooden beamed ceilings and Queen Victoria's famous wooden toilet.

Each of the 55 rooms at the Deeside Inn Hotel provides a welcoming and comfortable base for your stay in this beautiful part of the Grampian Highlands.
